Personal Information & Electronic Documents Act

Following is suggested wording for correspondence with contracting parties regarding compliance with the federal Personal Information and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

Effective January 1, 2004 insurers, reinsurers, and their intermediaries are subject to the Personal Information and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) with respect to personal information collected, used, or disclosed in the course of commercial activity.

Privacy principles have been adopted and are being implemented. These include issues such as ensuring personal information is properly protected and remains confidential.

We consider these obligations to be an integral part of our working and contractual relationships and we expect all parties involved to abide by and adhere to the PIPEDA legislation.
